The friendly staff of ADI and Proficient will be hosting an exciting certification course on their latest Editor software and hardware. Guest speaker Wade Bussey will help you differentiate yourself in today's competitive job market. Research indicates that certified employees are more likely to increase their competency and productivity for employers, clients and co-workers. For employers, our certification provides the essential skill verification tools to help them assess a person's ability in using Proficient Editor software and to complete tasks across multiple applications. Lunch will be provided!

Sign up today and get certified, space is limited!

Please RSVP Barry Graves at barry.graves@adiglobal.com for more information.

Please bring your laptop computer.
